

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Patni ranked among Top 10 Best Performers in IT Services and IT Infrastructure Services

Honored by Global Services and neIT in the 2009 rankings

Mumbai, March 09, 2009: Patni Computer Systems (BSE: PATNI COMPUT, NSE: PATNI, NYSE: PTI), a leading global IT and BPO services provider, today announced that it has been ranked No. 8 among the 'Top 10 Best Performers in IT Services' and ranked No. 7 among the 'Top 10 Best Performers in IT Infrastructure Services'. The survey conducted by Global Services, an integrated media brand, and neIT, a leading offshore advisory and management firm, included a panel of international experts assessing companies across geographies. Patni is also featured in the prestigious list of Top 100 innovative service providers of the year, which honours global companies that demonstrate leadership, innovation and outstanding performance in information technology.

Commenting on the achievement, Mr. Jeya Kumar, Chief Executive Officer, Patni said, "Patni's inclusion in the 'Global Services 100' is a testimony to our delivery excellence and our customer centric culture. We are happy to be recognized in our efforts to provide our clients with innovative technology solutions and consistent results."

"The 'Global Services 100' is like an index of globalization in the services industry. This year's list comprises companies headquartered in 19 countries, with customer locations in over 30 countries, and service delivery locations in 31 countries. A company that figures in this list bears testimony to the fact that it can serve global customers from multiple locations", says Ed Nair, Editor, Global Services.

"The 'Global Services 100' Study, in its 5th year, has become the industry standard for identifying leading companies from around the world who are making an impact in the field of global services. We congratulate this year's field, especially the organizations that have demonstrated functional and geographic excellence and were selected to the category specific 'Top 10 Lists'," added Eugene Kublanov, CEO, neIT.

Instituted 5 years ago, the 'Global Services 100' honors companies in 11 categories and evaluates them on the basis of their size, customers and skills which includes depth and breadth of offerings, delivery capability, quality initiatives and verticals covered. The top 100 list and the rankings in the various categories are based on a scientific methodology including a weighted scoring scheme which is assigned to address specific strengths and capabilities.
